

KABARAK UNIVERSITY

Education in Biblical Perspective

SCHOOL OF LAW

SHORT COURSES

SHORT COURSE ON ASPECTS OF DEVOLVED / MULTI-LEVEL GOVERNANCE

30TH APRIL - 4TH MAY 2018

Background

Kabarak Law School is fully accredited and licenced by both the Commission for University Education and the Council of Legal Education. It aims to be the thought leader in good governance in the African region. In addition to offering governance-related courses in its undergraduate programme, including Devolution and Governance Law, Elections Law, Public Procurement Law and East African Community and Regional Integration Law, Kabarak Law School is seeking to equip industry players by offering targeted thematic short courses throughout the year. Each thematic area shall be mounted as a separate short course programme for a period and cost suitable for the content of the thematic area.

Kabarak University School of Law invites applications for training in the first thematic area of Devolution Law: 'Understanding the County Assembly's Legislative Function' between 30th April and 4th May 2018 at Kabarak Guest House.

Target groups

- Members of County Assemblies and County Executives
- County Assembly Secretariat Staff
- Civil Society Groups with an interest in Devolution
- Students of Devolution
- Judicial Officers
- Litigation Lawyers

Course Tuition

The cost per participant is Kshs. 65,000 (which will cover conference costs, meals and accommodation), and KShs. 50,000 for Day Participants. Payments can be made either through the bank: Trans National Bank A/c No: 0040503005 Nakuru or via MPesa Pay Bill 511480 (Account name is the participant's name). Interested persons are invited to apply for the course by sending an email to lawshortcourses@kabarak.ac.ke by 20th April 2017.

Course content

Session 1	The Concept of Devolution explained
Session 2	Understanding the 3 conventional roles of government: lawmaking, execution and judicial.
Session 3	The relationship between county government and national government.
Session 4	The extent and limits of the county assembly's mandate.
Session 5	The complementary role of county assemblies in implementing national legislation.
Session 6	Basic concepts in law making.
Session 7	The procedure of law making.
Session 8	Public participation as a component of the law-making process.
Session 9	County Assembly Standing Orders.
Session 10	The disjunction between laws on paper and laws in practice.
Session 11	Creating public information: bill-tracking and law reporting.
Session 12	Reform of the county assembly legislative function.

Forthcoming Trainings

- 1. Devolution Law:
 - Thematic area 2: The oversight function of county assemblies
 - Thematic area 3: Participatory budgeting and budget making in counties
 - Thematic area 4: Public Finance Management in Counties – Legal and Regulatory Framework
- 2. Election Law and Practice
- 3. Children's Rights
- 4. Cyberspace and the Law
- 5. Human Rights Aspects of Migration

Enquiries

For further information and/or clarifications kindly contact us:

The Short Courses Secretariat | Kabarak University Law School, Nakuru | Private Bag 20157 KABARAK

Telephone: +254 773 049 779 Email: lawshortcourses@kabarak.ac.ke

